2. Introduction

- Your privacy is very important to us, and Remedi is committed to protecting your right to privacy as well as your right to access any information that Remedi has about you.
- The Access to Information Manual ('Manual') is prepared in compliance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 ('PAIA') and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ('POPIA'). In terms of this legislation, everyone has the right to access their personal information that is processed by a private body, responsible party or appointed operator, such as Remedi. The purpose of the Manual is to enable requesters to get the records to which they are entitled in a quick, easy and accessible manner.
- This Manual applies to Remedi Medical Aid Scheme (Remedi), registration number 1430, registered with the Council for Medical Schemes.
- PAIA aims to give effect to the constitutional right of everyone in South Africa to access their information held by a public or a private body. This information can be accessed to exercise or protect any right contained in the Bill of Rights.
- When a request for access is made, Remedi is obliged to give it, except where the law expressly says that the information must not be released.
- It is important to note that PAIA recognise certain limitations to the right of access to information, which include:
  - The reasonable protection of the right to privacy
  - Commercial confidentiality
  - Effective, efficient and good governance

- The limitation must balance that right of access to information with any other rights.
- The main objective of POPIA is to promote the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies. POPIA amended certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.

3. Access to the Manual

- In line with the law, this Manual serves as Remedi's access to information manual and provides information on both the types and categories of records held by Remedi. This includes the following:
  - A description of the records held by and on behalf of Remedi
  - The procedure to be followed
  - Any fees payable when requesting access to any of these records
- A copy of the Manual is available:
  - On the Remedi website, free of charge; (<https://www.yourremedi.co.za/portal/rem/privacy>)
  - On request by any person and upon payment of a reasonable prescribed fee
  - From the designated Information Officer of Remedi; whose details are set out in paragraph 4 of this document.

4. The purpose of the access to information manual

- This Manual is useful for the public to:
  - Check which categories of records Remedi holds, without having to submit a formal PAIA request.
  - Understand how to make a request for access to a record of Remedi by providing a description of the subjects on which Remedi holds records and the categories of records held on each subject.
  - Know the description of the records of Remedi which are available in terms of any other legislation.
  - Access all the relevant contact details of the Remedi Information Officer (IO) who will assist the public with the records they intend to access.
  - Know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator, and how to obtain access to it.
  - Know if Remedi will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the relevant information or categories of information.
  - Know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the relevant information or categories of information.
  - Know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied.
  - Know if Remedi has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied.

Know whether Remedi has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

5. Key contact details of the Remedi Information Officer

6. Guide on how to use PAIA and how to obtain access to the guide

- The Information Regulator has, in terms of section 10 (1) of PAIA, as amended, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA (the 'Guide') easily, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.
- The Guide is available in English only.
- The Guide contains the following information:
  - o The objectives of PAIA and POPIA.
  - o How to request access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50 of PAIA.
  - o The assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA.
  - o All remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging:
    - An internal appeal
    - A complaint to the Regulator
    - An application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body

- o The provisions of sections 14 and 51 of PAIA requiring a public body and private body, respectively, to compile a manual, and how to obtain access to a manual.
  - o The provisions of sections 15 and 52 of PAIA providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public body and private body, respectively.
  - o The notices issued in terms of sections 22 and 54 of PAIA regarding fees to be paid for requests for access.
  - o The regulations made in terms of section 92 of PAIA.
- Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the Scheme as per the registered rules, during normal working hours.
  - The Guide can also be obtained:
    - o Upon request to the Information Officer

- Personal information is stored on secured servers, personal computers and mobile devices and in secure manual record-keeping systems.
- A range of physical, electronic and other security measures have been deployed to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of the personal information that we hold. Examples include the following:
  - Ensuring controlled access to information systems through identity and access management controls.
  - Employees of Remedi and our contracted service providers are bound by internal information security policies and must process information securely.
  - Regular review and monitoring of compliance with policies and industry best practice.

15. Availability of this Manual

- A copy of this Manual is available:
  - On our website at <https://www.yourremedi.co.za/portal/rem/privacy>
  - At the registered address as per the rules of the Scheme during normal business hours
  - To any person upon request and upon the payment of a reasonable prescribed fee
  - To the Information Regulator upon request.
- A fee for a copy of the Manual, as contemplated in annexure B of the Regulations, must be paid for each A4-size photocopy made.

16. Access procedure

- Note: The request for access to information is processed centrally, on behalf of Remedi, by the Discovery Group Privacy Office (a shared services function within Discovery Central Services (Pty) Ltd) under the authority of Remedi. All requests to access to information are captured onto the Discovery Group's central privacy information management system for purposes of collection and communication to the requester in a secure manner.
- A requester requiring access to information held by Remedi must complete the Access Request Form or visit <https://www.yourremedi.co.za/portal/rem/privacy> to access the form. After completion, it must be submitted to the Information Officer at the postal address, physical address or email address provided. The requester must pay an access request fee (and a deposit, if applicable) unless that fee is waived by the Information Officer.

- The Access Request Form must contain sufficient details to enable the Information Officer to identify the following:
  - The records requested.
  - The proof of identity of the requester.
  - The form of access required if the request is granted.
  - The email address, postal address or fax number of the requester.
- If the request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request. This information must be to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer and the requester must clearly disclose the right they wish to protect.
- If a person is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, they may make the request orally.
- The requester will be informed whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- A copy of the manual form (Form 2) can be downloaded from the Information Regulator's website at: <https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/InfoRegSA-PAIA-Form02-Reg7.pdf>

17. Third-party notification

- Remedi will take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom a requested record relates if the disclosure of that record would involve the disclosure of any of the following:
  - Personal information about that third party.
  - Trade secrets of that third party.
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information (other than trade secrets) of that third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party.
  - Information supplied in confidence by a third party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations.
  - Information about research being, or to be, carried out by or on behalf of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party, a person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party, or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.
- In addition, Remedi will take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom a requested record relates if the disclosure of that record would lead to any of the following:
  - Prejudice to that third party in commercial competition
  - An action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.
- Remedi will inform the third party as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within 21 days after that request is received. Within 21 days of being informed of the request, the third party may do one of the following:

- Make written or oral representations to the Information Officer, explaining why the request for access should be refused.
- Give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester. Remedi will notify the third party of the outcome of the request. If the request is granted, adequate reasons for granting the request will be given.
- The third party may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the decision within 30 days after notice is given.

18. Grounds for refusal of access to records

- Remedi may refuse a request for information on the following basis:
  - Mandatory protection of the personal information, special personal information or privacy of a third party who is a natural person (including children), if supplying the information would involve the unlawful or unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person
  - Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
    - Trade secrets or intellectual property of that third party
    - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, if the disclosure would likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party
    - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Remedi if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
  - Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation.
  - Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property
  - Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
  - Protection of the commercial information of Remedi, which may include:
    - Trade secrets of Remedi
    - Intellectual property of Remedi
    - Financial information that, if disclosed, could put Remedi at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
    - A computer program, algorithm, actuarial modelling or application that is owned by Remedi and that is protected by copyright.
  - Protection of the research information of Remedi or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
  - The request is clearly frivolous or involves an unreasonable diversion of resources.

19. Refusal when the record cannot be found

- If all reasonable steps have been taken by Remedi to find the record requested by the requester and it cannot be found for reasons justifiable in terms of section 55 of PAIA, the Information Officer shall provide an affidavit or affirmation to the requester advising that it is not possible to give access to the record requested.
- If the record is found subsequently, Remedi undertakes to contact the requester to gain access to it, after the payment of the applicable access fee and subject to the provisions of this Manual.

20. Remedies available when Remedi refuses a request for information

- The decision of the Information Officer is final and binding. Remedi does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer may exercise external remedies at their disposal. All complaints by a requester or a third party can be made to the Information Regulator or a court, in the manner prescribed in paragraphs 21 and 22 below.

21. Complaints to the Information Regulator

- The requester or third party may submit a complaint in writing to the Information Regulator, within 180 days of the decision to refuse a request for information, alleging that the decision was not in compliance with the provisions of the legislation. The Information Regulator will investigate the complaint and reach a decision, which may include a decision to investigate, to take no further action, to conciliate the matter or to refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee. The Information Regulator may serve an enforcement notice confirming, amending or setting aside the impugned decision, which must be accompanied by reasons.

22. Application to Court

- An application to court may be brought in the ordinary course. For this purpose, any reference to an application to court includes an application to a relevant magistrate's court.

23. Updating of the Manual

- The Information Officer of Remedi will update this Manual on a regular basis.
- Issued by Mr Jaco Janse van Vuuren
- Principal Officer, Remedi Medical Aid Scheme

24. Prescribed Fees

24.1. Payment of Fees

- Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer. Payment can be made by direct deposit into the nominated Remedi bank account. Proof of payment must be attached to the Access Request Form along with the other required documentation.

- The following fees are (or may be) payable:
  - Request fee
  - Access fee
  - Reproduction fee

24.2. Request fee

- The requester must pay an initial request fee when submitting the Access Request Form. The prescribed fee is set out below.

24.3. Access fee

- If the request for access is successful, an access fee must be paid prior to the release of the records by Remedi. This fee is for the search, reproduction and preparation of the record(s). The access fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below.

24.4. Reproduction fee

- This fee applies to documents or records that are voluntarily disclosed. This is for reproduction, copying and transcribing the relevant documents or records. The reproduction fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below.

24.5. Deposit

- If the search for, and the preparation of, the record for disclosure would, in the opinion of the
- Information Officer, require more than 6 hours, the requester may be required to pay as a deposit one third of the access fee (the fee which will be payable if the request is granted).
- If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is subsequently refused, then the Information Officer must refund the deposit in full to the requester.
- The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any processing, or any further processing, can take place.
- Remedi reserves the right to waive the fees payable subject to the type and categories of information requested as well as the effort required to provide access to the requested information. The requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the request and access fees or deposit if Remedi declines the requester's request to waive the fees.
- Where Remedi receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester and the Information Officer, upon receipt of the request, is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 hours, a deposit is payable to the requester.
- The amount of the deposit is equal to one third of the amount of the applicable access fee.
- Please note: In terms of Regulation 8, value-added tax (VAT) must be added to all fees prescribed in terms of the Regulations. Therefore, the fees reflected below include VAT.
